Effective School Counseling

Stella Siciliano MSW, LCSW

In this workshop the attendees will learn effective ways of working with students on a variety of issues relevant to the school environment. Discussion areas include suicide, self-injury and substance abuse assessment, common issues that students exhibit in elementary through high School. How age shapes interaction, reaction and parent involvement, analysis of counseling versus administrator /disciplinary roles and how these lines are sometimes blurred. Additional topics will be the use of Character Education and the planning if school wide programs and the effect it can have on the building. Confidentiality, record keeping, setting up an office that promotes a welcoming and safe environment, burn out, self-care and compartmentalization.
